1. SARS: Tax Relief Incentives.

Deferral relief applies to the following employers:

- Small to Medium Sized businesses with an Annual Turnover not exceeding R 50 million for the 2020-2021 tax year;
- This will not apply to an employer that is not tax compliant, and that
  - has failed to submit any return in terms of the Tax Administration Act (TAA); and
  - has any outstanding tax debt in terms of the TAA. (excluding a tax in respect of which an agreement has been entered into)

• PAYE deferral relief:

- Pay periods whereby relief may be utilised:
   April 2020 (due for payment 7 May 2020) to July 2020 (due for payment 7 August 2020).
- Interest and penalties will apply if the employer has understated the PAYE liability.

· Relief calculation:

- · Declare full amounts as per payroll;
- Pay 80% of the PAYE liability (not for Skills Levy or UIF payments) on the due dates.
- The remaining 20% of the PAYE liability is to be settled in equal instalments over the next six months. This means as from August 2020 (due for payment 7 September 2020) to February 2021. (due for payment 5 March 2021)

SARS: Tax Relief Incentives (continue)

Provisional Tax deferral relief:

- · Pay periods whereby relief may be utilised:
  - First provisional tax payment (due for payment between 1 April 2020 to 30 September 2020)
  - Second provisional tax payment (due for payment between 1 April 2020 to 31 March 2021)

Provisional Tax deferral relief (continue)

- · Relief Calculation:
  - First period: 15% of the total estimated tax liability (normally 50%) will be due.
  - Second period:
     65% of the total estimated tax liability will be due.
  - Outstanding portion: This will be due with the normal third provisional tax payment.

· SARS: Employee Tax Incentive (ETI) benefit.

- Periods whereby government will be expanding the ETI programme: April 2020 to July 2020.
- SARS will accelerate the payment of ETI reimbursements from biannually to monthly.
- · Employers may benefit for payments to employees who -
  - · have never qualified under the ETI rules, and also
  - · Earning below R 6 500 per month qualifies.

· ETI benefit calculations:

- · R 500 per month, per employee for
  - ineligible employees aged 18 29 (where employers have already claimed the ETI), or
  - employees aged 30 65 (due to age)
- · R500 per month, per employee extra for
  - · Eligible employees
    - in the first qualifying 12 months from R 1 000 to R 1 500 per month and
    - In the second qualifying 12 months from R 500 to R 1 000 per month.

- Rebates for customs duty: Goods imported for distress relief in terms of the national disaster, will attract no customs tax or VAT - if the importer has a ITAC permit.
- Implication of exports for zero rating:
  - The prescribed period was extended in which goods need to be exported with additional 3 months
  - Only applies to movable goods for which the prescribed periods have not yet been exceeded on 26 March 2020.
  - This will be applicable until withdrawn, amended or legislation has been updated.
  - For indirect exports, extension of the period of claiming refunds was amended to 6 months.
- Late payment of VAT:
  - · No exceptions late payment penalties still applies.
